- You must be 18 years of age or older in order to complete an application.
- See Appendix B for details regarding the criteria for enrolment as an Elector.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

Your application along with supporting documents must be mailed or couriered to the following address:

c/o Enrolment Officer

Joan Holmes & Associates Inc.
7 Hinton Ave North, Suite 200
Ottawa, Ontario K1Y 4P1

TELEPHONE INQUIRIES

If you have questions about filling out the application please contact: 1-877-287-4570. This toll-free number will be operational as of Friday, September 17, 2004.

CHECKLIST

All 5 pages of the application form completed and SIGNED at page 3 as indicated.

Supporting documentation including ORIGINALS of official documents (see page 3 for more information). Failure to meet supporting document requirements may result in refusal of your application for enrolment.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information provided on your application form is intended to be used for the purpose of the election of Algonquin Negotiation Representatives and will also be added to a database for future communications regarding negotiations. The information provided may be verified by the Enrolment Officer.

INSTRUCTIONS

① PERSONAL INFORMATION.

Please insert your surname (last name) at birth in the space provided if different than your current surname.

② SPOUSE'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your spouse must apply separately if he/she wishes to be enrolled.

③ MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Place an x in a box for any and all options which apply to you.

1. Non-Registered/Non-Status. Check this box if you are a person of Aboriginal descent who is not registered as an Indian under the Indian Act. (see 4 below to indicate your community of representation)
2. Registered/Status Indian. Check this box if you are a registered Indian under the Indian Act, e.g. recognized by the government of Canada's Indian and Northern Affairs. Please supply a copy of your status card (both sides).
3. Recognized Band Member. Check this box if you are a member of a status Indian band under the Indian Act. Please name the band in the space provided.

④ REPRESENTATION

Under the Addendum, an Algonquin Negotiation Representative will be elected from each community of Algonquins with a minimum membership of 125 persons of Algonquin descent. Each applicant for enrolment must select in which community he/she has past or present residency or social or family ties. This will be the community in which the applicant will vote. Please check off one of the communities listed or write in another community (in the space provided) which satisfies the criteria set out in the Addendum at paragraph 2 (i).

See <http://www.blaney.com/algonquin.htm> for the text of the Addendum.

5 FAMILY INFORMATION

List each of your children in the space provided. If there is insufficient space provided, please append an additional sheet to your application. Children who are over the age of 18 should submit their own application for enrolment.

6 ANCESTRY

Information on your ancestry should be provided in the ancestry chart on pages 4 and 5 of your Application. According to the enrolment criteria (see Appendix B) you must be a direct lineal descendant of a person on Schedule A, or a descendant of an Algonquin previously accepted by the Enrolment Board. You may view Schedule A online at <http://www.blaney.com/algonquin.htm> (click on "Addendum to Protocol Agreement.pdf", see pages 25 to 58). Copies are also available by mail from the Enrolment Officer or by calling the toll-free number 1-877-287-4570 after September 17, 2004.

Supporting documentation. Originals of official documents must be provided. THEY WILL BE KEPT SAFE AND SECURE AND WILL BE RETURNED TO YOU AFTER REVIEW TO THE MAILING ADDRESS YOU PROVIDE. Note: If you do not wish to supply originals, then you have two alternatives:

1. supply notarized photocopy of original; or
2. present originals for viewing to Joan Holmes and Associates Inc.

It is not necessary to supply originals of unofficial documentation, for example genealogical charts or census data. The following is a list of official documents:

- Extended Birth Certificate
- Baptismal Certificate
- Marriage Record
- Death Certificate
- Statutory Declaration
- Adoption Record
- Affidavits
- Legal change of Name
- Divorce Decree
- Separation Papers

See Appendix A on page 4 for assistance in obtaining genealogical data and official documentation.

7 AUTHORIZATION

Please sign and date the application at page 3.

APPENDIX A

GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION

Important: You may wish to contact your community leader or other official for advice or assistance in obtaining vital records.

1. Obtaining Birth, Marriage and Death Records for Events which occurred in Ontario

a) Application forms for Ontario birth certificates are available:

- online <http://www.cbs.gov.on.ca/mcbs/english/4U4V5Z.htm>
- by mail from the Office of the Registrar General Box 4600, Thunder Bay Ontario, P7B 6L8 Tel: 416-325-8305 1-800-461-2156 (toll-free in Ontario)
- in person from the Toronto Office at 900 Bay Street, 2nd floor; and
- at Ontario Land Registry Offices and Government Information Centres province-wide

b) Processing Times for Obtaining Documents from Registrar General of Ontario

Regular service currently requires a minimum of 6-8 weeks.

c) Delivery: All certificates will be delivered to the address provided on the application form.

The Archives of Ontario holds birth registrations for the years 1869 to 1907 (1908 registrations will be opened in 2005), marriages 1780 to 1922 (but prior to 1869, these records are very incomplete), 1869 to 1932. Information can be found on their website located at: <http://www.archives.gov.on.ca/english/interloan/vsmain.htm>

Some local libraries also have microfilm copies of indexes to these vital statistics.

2. Obtaining Birth, Marriage and Death Records for Events which occurred in Other Provinces and Territories

The National Archives of Canada's website has information on how you may obtain vital records from other provinces. Their internet address is:

http://www.genealogy.gc.ca/10/100606_e.html

3. Genealogical Research Resources

There is a great deal of information available on the internet about how to research family history and genealogy.

Good starting points are:

1. The Archives of Ontario's Genealogical Research Site:
<http://www.archives.gov.on.ca/english/geneal/index.html>
2. The Library and Archives Canada's Canadian Genealogy Centre:
<http://www.genealogy.gc.ca>
3. The Latter Day Saints family search web site has information on conducting genealogical research in international locations. www.familysearch.org
4. Cyndi's List – This is an index to a variety of international genealogical topics including areas relating to Canadian and Native American genealogy.
<http://www.cyndislist.com/>
5. Census Records Online: There are a number of online resources that will help you quickly locate appropriate census records. These are as follows:
 - a) 1871 Ontario Census Index - http://www.lac-bac.gc.ca/archivianet/020108_e.html
 - b) 1881 Census of Canada - www.familysearch.org/Eng/Search/frameset_search.asp
 - c) 1901 Fourth Census of Canada - www.lac-bac.gc.ca/archivianet/020122_e.htmlThe 1901 census is not indexed. Automated Genealogy's website has partially indexed these records. The website is:
<http://automatedgenealogy.com/census/NationalSummary.jsp>

APPENDIX B

Criteria for enrolment as an Elector

Criteria for enrolment as per Addendum to the March 25, 2004 Protocol Agreement. See the full text in section II.10 at <http://www.blaney.com/algonquin.htm>: The following is an extract from the Addendum.

“II. The Electors

10. Persons who declare themselves Algonquin and who meet the following criteria shall be added to the Electors’ List (described below) and thereby shall be entitled to vote in the elections for the position of Algonquin Negotiation Representative referred to in paragraph 2.

Persons who:

- (a) have attained the age of 18 years on or before October 1, 2004; and
- (b) who were enrolled on or before November 17, 2001 on the list maintained for that purpose pursuant to the then existing Algonquin Enrolment Law, May 31, 1994 (the “List”) provided there is no adverse determination made in that regard by the Enrolment Officer as a result of the review undertaken by him or her pursuant to paragraph 14 (a); or
- (c) subject to the review described in paragraph 14 (a), were added to the List after November 17, 2001; or
- (d) can demonstrate direct lineal descent from at least one person identified in Schedule “A” annexed to the then existing Algonquin Enrolment Law, May 31, 1994 (A further copy of Schedule “A” is annexed as Appendix C) ; or
- (e) can demonstrate direct lineal descent from at least one person previously accepted as an Algonquin by the Enrolment Board established pursuant to the then existing Algonquin Enrolment Law, May 31, 1994.” [emphasis added]
