

Algonquins of Ontario
Treaty Negotiations

NOTICE OF MEETING

Robert J. Potts, Principal Negotiator with respect to the ongoing Algonquin Treaty Negotiations has called a public information meeting for the peoples of Algonquin ancestry living in the Toronto and southern Ontario region. This information meeting is being called to inform those attending about the current status of the Treaty Negotiation process. Mr. Potts will be joined at the meeting by the Algonquin Negotiation Representatives and representatives of Canada's and Ontario's negotiating teams. All peoples of Algonquin descent in these areas are encouraged to attend. The date, time and location for this meeting are as follows:

Toronto:
Thursday, November 30, 2006
7:00 p.m.
Native Canadian Centre of Toronto,
The Talking Room
16 Spadina Road, Toronto, Ontario, M5R 2S7
Phone (416) 964-9087

Located in Bloor and Spadina area with parking available only at commercial parking lots. Parking around the Centre is available for staff only. The Centre is 2 ½ blocks north of the corner of Bloor and Spadina. It is close the Spadina Subway Station.

For those wishing more information, you can contact your local Algonquin Negotiation Representative (see website at www.blaney.com/algonquin.htm for further details), or by calling our toll free information line at 1-877-287-4570.