Dear Brenda Lee Mary Rita Higson,

Subject: Inquiries into Certain Ancestors on the Schedule of Algonquin Ancestors

We are writing to notify you that the Algonquin Negotiation Representatives (ANRs) have asked the Algonquin Tribunal<sup>1</sup> (Tribunal) to consider whether certain historic persons who are presently on the Schedule of Algonquin Ancestors (Schedule) should remain on the Schedule.

The ANRs have referred the following historic persons to the Tribunal for inquiry:

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. Angelique Atkinson                              | 8. Hannah Mannell             |
| 2. Frederick Ferris and Walter Ferris <sup>2</sup> | 9. Michel McDonald            |
| 3. Sophie Carriere dit Jammes                      | 10. Anna McDonald-McDonnell   |
| 4. Jacques Kamiskwabinnich                         | 11. Cecile McDonnell-Mawiskak |
| 5. Francois Kawitadijik                            | 12. Louis Michiminanakwakwe   |
| 6. Thomas St-Jean dit Laguarde                     | 13. Joseph Paquette           |
| 7. Toussaint Laronde                               | 14. Mary Petrin               |

<sup>1</sup> The Algonquin Tribunal was established pursuant to the Special Resolution of the Algonquin Negotiation Representatives on the Algonquins of Ontario Enrolment and Appeal Board (approved on April 20, 2021) for the purposes of considering matters related to enrolment. A copy of this Special Resolution is available at: <https://www.tanakiwin.com/tribunal>

If you have any questions regarding this process, including confirmation of what specific historic person(s) that you rely on as an Algonquin Ancestor for the purposes of enrolment, you may email us at tribunal@tanakiwin.com or you may reach us by phone at 1-613-401-1209.

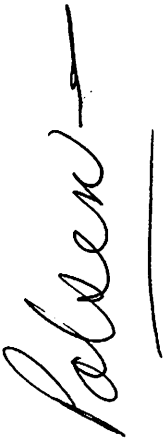

You may also contact the ANR for your community for additional information.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

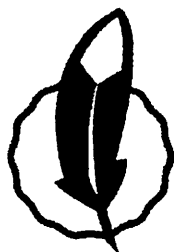

Ralph Lance
Chair, Algonquin Tribunal

It is expected that the Enrolment Officer's report regarding Mary Petrin will be posted sometime during the week of September 6, 2022. A schedule for next steps in this inquiry will be posted at that time.

Should you wish to participate in this inquiry, the Tribunal respectfully suggests that you presently take steps to prepare your submissions and not wait until the schedule is posted.

If you intend on participating in this proceeding, the Tribunal kindly request that you send an email to tribunal@tanakiwin.com confirming your intention to do so.

Dear Brenda Higson,

Subject: Proposed Beneficiary Criteria to determine who are the Aboriginal rights-bearing Algonquin Beneficiaries under the Algonquins of Ontario Treaty

Further to the correspondence from Robert Potts, Principal Negotiator and Senior Legal Counsel for the Algonquins of Ontario (AOO) on April 14, 2020 on the above noted matter, we are pleased to inform you that you meet the Proposed Beneficiary Criteria and are now enrolled. Your enrolment is based on our assessment of the genealogical and historical information supplied by you and information on file in the Algonquins of Ontario Enrolment Office.

Your name will be placed on the Voters List and you will be eligible to vote in the upcoming Algonquin Negotiation Representative (ANR) Election in your community.

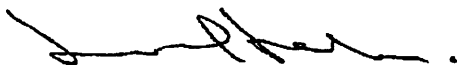

Individuals, like yourself, who are enrolled under the Proposed Beneficiary Criteria in Stage 1 of the Enrolment process, will still be subject to potential protests against either their ancestor or their application as part of Stage 2 of the Enrolment Process. Stage 2 will begin at a date yet to be determined following the ANR Election.

If there is no successful protest affecting your enrolment at that time, you will be eligible to vote on the ratification of the final treaty that is currently under negotiation between the Governments of Canada, Ontario and the Algonquins of Ontario. You will also become a Beneficiary of that treaty once it is ratified.

Your local ANR will be advised that you are enrolled under the Proposed Beneficiary Criteria. If you have any further questions please contact your local ANR or Community Liaison Support (see Attachment 1).

If you have any further questions about these matters, please do not hesitate to contact your local Algonquin Negotiation Representative.

yours very truly,

Joan Holmes
Enrolment Officer
Algonquin Treaty Negotiations

Le 3 Aoust 1872 a ete par nous exhume. Josph ne en Mai de Johny Wajou et de Marie Petrin en presence de Johny et de Monicie qui mont signor. It was signed by J.V. Poitras .

I have just found another note to myself and Chamberlain A.A. baptism born May 7 bap~~t~~<sup>June</sup> 9, 1901. Francois Chamberlain , journalist et de Marie McIssac from Bessets Creek. God parents Alexander Thomas & Maggie McIssac, uncle and aunt. Father was absent. from reel 1304815.

I do not know how accurate the information is, as it was in hand writing and in French which I am not too good in. However a lady did her best to translate for me but the hand writing was very difficult to read.

I do urge you to go the the Latter Day Saints library., if at all possible. If you can't I will do my best to go back. I do not have all the names you are looking up and there seemed to be many Chamberlains. Good Luck in the future.

Yours truly,

The Boncherre Algonquinn First Nation

Wajou-Petrin Family

The oldest remembered ancestors of this family was Mary Petrin (b. 1857) and Isaac Wajou (1852), also known as Johny Isaac or John McIsaac.

The current member of the BAC that traced their lineage through this family have the surnames Chamberlain, Chartrand, Higson, Phinney, Campbell, Barker, Cook, Romain, Wrighs, and Doyle. They identify places such as Stonecliffe, as significant locations where they hunted, fishes, picnicked and gathered for family functions. One descendant recalls-

I remember having huge gatherings and picnics. I remember hunting season, a lot of men coming to our house to hunt with my grandfather [Thomas Antoine Chartrand, b. 1890] and sharing in the meat. Beautiful Christmas' and holidays and picnics.

The oral family history claims that Mary Petrin

...was a princess from Deux Montaigne. Her father was a chief there. Then, there was a war between the Indians. The Iroquois raided the village and killed her father and mother. She had climbed a tree and hid there. A while later, some of her tribe who had survived had come by and seen her in the tree and knew what had happened to her family. One couple took her with them and brought her up.

Mary Mitchell, a granddaughter of Mary Petrin McIsaac wrote "The Rocher Captaine Song" which includes this excerpt about her grandmother:

Today I take pride in introducing to you my grandmother McIsaac, she of the gentle ways and kind and generous heart. She was born at 'Lake of Two Mountains' about 60 miles north of Montreal. It was during the early years when Native people sought new beginnings in their old way of life, seeking to cling to their culture and life style in a world that seemed indifferent, since they were the conquered race. Thus they became wanderers in the land they once claimed as their own. The result as history shows, an once proud race subdued, uncertain and bewildered, ever seeking change, ever finding rejection, and ever accepting the harsh reality that they were as 'Aliens' in their own country. Grandmother's family travelled the water route, and eventually arrived in Mattawa. There she met and married Grandfather (John) McIsaac, in the year 1871. They then travelled down river and when they arrived at the little village of Bissett's Creek they decided to settle down there. ...Grandmother saw two of her ons go off to war (1914-1918) along with their conrade: I salute their bravery by writing their names: Tom McIsaac; Alex McIsaac; and Jim Tooley. (All killed in action). ...During the terrible influenza outbreak in 1918, she and her good friend Mrs. Mary Tooley (Jim's mother) nursed the villagers back to health, going to each home, never for a moment considering their own health in the precious care they rendered. ...In all the years of her married life she stood by grandfather's side steadfast and true, in good times as well as in tragic circumstances. For example, the great forest fire that totally destroyed their little cabin home, and save for the brave fight they fought would have claimed their lives and that of their helpless little ones.

Mary Petrin was also a midwife, reportedly walking miles to deliver babies.

John and Mary are known to have eleven children, ten of whom were born at Bissett's Creek (1873-1893), one at Deux Rivieres (1883), as shown on the family tree, Mary Petrin and John McIsaac and their children lived mainly around Bissett Creek in Maria Township. Most of John and Mary's children were baptised as Saint-Anne Parish in Mattawa in the 1870's and 1880's, their son John was buried there in 1872 and their daughter Sophia (Maria) was married there in 1891. One son, Joseph Richard (1873), and one daughter Sophia Marie (1876), are known to have left descendants that are part of the Bonnechere community.

In 1881 the census shows that John Isaac (39) and his wife Mary (28) were residing in the census district of Head, Clara, & Maria Townships in Renfrew County North. Bissett's Creek was located in this census district. According to this record, John was born in the "North-East" and Mary was born in Quebec. Their origin was given as "Half-Breed", John and Mary were shown with Joseph (8), Francis (4), and Margaret (3). The children were also listed as "Half-Breed".

Ten years later the census enumerates the family in the same location. John McIsaac (45), his wife Mary (43) and their children: Dick (18), Sophia (16), Maggie (14), James (12), Thomas (10), Florence (8), and William Joseph (4).

The 1901 census shows them again in Head, Clara & Maria Townships. They were enumerated as John McIsaac (48) born at Hudson's Bay, his wife, Mary (48) and their children: Maggie (22), James (20), Thomas (18), Florence (16), William (11), Annie (10), and Alexander (7). While his wife's origin is recorded as French, John was recorded as being "tete du Bule", and the rest of the family were "tete & F.B.". Tete du Bule was a term used to describe the Algonquin-speaking peoples of northern Quebec, more accurately called the Attikamek.

As noted above, two of the children of Isaac Wajou and Mary Petrin, Joseph Richard McIsaac and Sophie (Maria) McIsaac left descendant that are part of the Bonnechere community.

Joseph Richard Wajou (McIsaac) was born at Bissett Creek. Joseph Richard married Caroline Tooley. According to family tradition the Tooley's were close family friends of Joseph Richard's mother Mary Petrin. The surnames of the descendants of Joseph Richard Wajou and Caroline Tooley, includes: Brown, Chards, Robinson, Julian, Welsh, and Stencell. Most of these descended from Joseph Richard and Caroline Tooley's daughter, Mae Louise McIsaac who married Benjamin Royal sometime prior to 1930.

Sophia Wajou (McIsaac) was often called Maria McIsaac. Her daughter and her niece attested to this fact. Her daughter Elmira Chamberlain Chartrand stated:

...Sophia McIsaac and Maria McIsaac is one of the same. She was my mother. Some people called her Sophia, others called her Maria. But she is the same women married to my father Frank Chamberlain....

Her niece Mary Mitchell swore:

...I know as a fact that Sophia McIsaac Chamberlain and Maria McIsaac Chamberlain are the same women. She was my Aunt. I remember exactly when she changed her name. She did not like to be called Sophia. This is a true fact. I swear it to be true.

Sophia (Maria) McIsaac married Frank Jean Chamberlain in Mattawa in December 1891. Her older sister Margaret Isaac Wajou was one of the witnesses. Sophia and Frank lived most of their married life around Stonecliffe which is just down river from Bissett's Creek. According to one of her descendants, Sophia had waist length jet black hair.

Like her mother, Sophia had eleven children. Her third daughter Florence Henriette Chamberlain, was born in Stonecliffe in 1896; Florence Henriette was identified as "Indian" on her daughter's birth certificate. The descendants of Florence Henriette are members of the Antoine First Nation.

Some current BAC members are descendants of Sophia Maria Wajou and Frank Chamberlain, mostly through their daughter Mary Elmira Chamberlain who married Thomas Antoine (Joseph) Chartrand in August of 1928. These descendants now bear the surnames; Chamberlain, Chartrand, Higson, Phinney, Campbell, Barker, Cook, Roman, Wrighs, and Doyle. One of these descendants wrote the following memories of her family:

My first memories are of both my grandmom [Mary Elmira Chamberlain, b.1912] and great grandmom [Sophia Wajou, b. 1876] brushing this waist length hair. It was beautiful jet black, like silk. Also my grandmom singing in Indian, a song. The holidays were always a huge gathering. Food would be made and brought by visitors, stories would be told, a big campfire or bon fire would be made. The elders would sit around talking, beans were cooked under the sand. Another memory is, if someone was in trouble or needed help, people would listen to them, work together to help each other.

CFB Petawawa

Petawawa Township, Petawawa Village and the Canadian Forces Base nearby all take their name from the Petawawa River which flows through here. The name means "where one hears a noise like this." The late Mrs Carl Price, writing in the Pembroke Observer some thirty years ago, said that according to local legend, Petawawa was also the name of an Indian woman who lived on the river's bank. She died in 1875 at the age of 115 years.

This township was surveyed in 1857 but even before that, land was advertised for sale here. At one time it was united with other nearby townships for municipal purposes, but it became a separate entity in 1864. The 1861 census shows that many of its early homes were built during the 1850s.

Long ago there were a number of people of French descent in this township, where fur trader Gabriel de Bellefeuille was one of the earliest residents. The Clouthiers were also early arrivals and the Walling's map of 1863 shows a hotel run by this family in the southern portion of the township, near the Black Bay area. Other names include Paquette, Chartrand, Turcotte, Sylvestre and Charette.

Other early settlers in the area went by the names of Burwash, McIntyre, Murphy, Brennan, Egan and Martin. Some years later, a large number of German families moved into the area. Some names were Antler, Blaedow, Brumm, Gorr, Greif, Gust, Hempel, Kossatz, Mohns, Prange, Radtke, Schroeder and Woito.

The first council here in 1865 comprised James McGregor, John Mitchell, John Rowan, Patrick Higgins and Jonathan Phillips. Among themselves they selected McGregor as Reeve. Their clerk was Charles Young.

Today, there are two important communities within the township, Petawawa Village, now a separate municipality, and CFB Petawawa. The village grew up first. At the turn of the century it had a population of 65, with John McLean as postmaster. Sol Devine ran a hotel here, F. Woermke had a grocery store, John Barker operated a general store, and James Dempster had a sawmill.

Camp Petawawa grew up following a move by the Canadian government in 1905 to establish a military overseas to fight in the two World Wars. In 1988, young servicemen have left Camp Petawawa for the Persian Gulf, as part of a peace-keeping force there, following cessation of hostilities between Iraq and Iran.

While these activities are a matter for pride among those who have fought for freedom, Camp Petawawa has also had a darker chapter in its history. During the First World War more than 1000 local people of German descent were interned here. To add insult to injury, some of them were immigrants whose land had been sold or expropriated in order that the camp might be built.

History was made in Petawawa Township in the summer of 1909 when Canadian aviators made several successful flights from the Petawawa military camp. The fliers were F.W. "Casey" Baldwin and J.A.D. McCurdy, using the legendary Silver Dart. Earlier that year, McCurdy had made the first aircraft flight in the British Empire when he flew the Silver Dart over three quarters of a mile of ice at a height of sixty feet at Baddeck, Nova Scotia. The aircraft was made of wire, bamboo and cloth.

Naturally, The Pembroke Observer was present when the aviators came to Petawawa, as the name was written in those days. "Last week the Petawawa Military Camp marked the first occasion in the history of the Dominion in which an airship ever floated over a Dominion Military Camp," the reporter wrote, beginning his story beneath a full three inches of assorted headlines.

McCurdy and Baldwin arrived at the airport at five o'clock in the morning in order to avoid sightseers. The purpose of their visit was to try out a new 40 hp car motor which they planned to transfer to another airship, the Baddeck # 1. McCurdy, as before, was the pilot; Baldwin was along as an observer. This was the first time a second party has been tried on a Canadian flying machine."

The weather was judged to be perfect- no wind- and the pair reached a speed of fifty miles an hour, a record for Canadian flights at the time. They made five flights, but as they came in for the final landing, disaster struck. The rising sun shone in the pilot's eyes and the

"What do you intend to

"We will not repair the present. They are not much let that go for the present into the Baddeck # 1, which

"About how far did you

"About half a mile."

The soldiers at the camp helping to change the engine decided that the Silver Dart "being too much wrecked... the wings ripped up."

Far from being discouraged the pair prepared themselves. The Ottawa Free Press was

On June 22, the big yellow bus again rambled the township roads in Head, Clara and Maria to gather up the Seniors for their annual Picnic at the Mackey Hydro Park.

There were horseshoe contests, lawn darts and continuous euchre games. Nick Bertrand gave a song recitation and Councillor Lita Therrien led the crew in sing-song. Later, Bertrand, Ferdie Boudreau and Wyman Jennings rattled off a few tunes on the mouthorgan.

The extreme heat of the day did not bother the seniors as they enjoyed games, visiting and picnic style supper in the shade of the giant willow as a refreshing breeze blew in off the Ottawa River.

The Rocher Captaine Song

by Mary Mitchell

Today I take pride in introducing to you my grandmother McIsaac, she of the gentle ways and kind and generous heart.

She was born at 'Lake of Two Mountains' about 60 miles north of Montreal. It was during the early years when Native people sought new beginnings in their old way of life, seeking to cling to their culture and life style in a world that seemed indifferent, since they were the conquered race.

Thus they became wanderers in the land they once claimed as their own. The result as history shows, a once proud race subdued, uncertain and bewildered, ever seeking change, ever finding rejection, and ever accepting the harsh reality that they were as 'Aliens' in their own country.

Grandmother's family traveled the water route, and eventually arrived in Mattawa. There she met and married Grandfather McIsaac, in the year 1871. They then traveled down river and when they arrived at the little village of Bissett's Creek they decided to settle there.

Grandmother was a very wise woman as well as a happy and contented soul. She was a true and steadfast friend to all she chanced to meet on her 'Journey' small wonder she shines as a star in my memory.

Her life was one of total giving, and she never considered herself to be the bearer of hardships.

She would walk many miles to deliver babies when she was called upon for help, and while she would never disclose the number, she was pleased and very thankful to say she never lost one little life, or that of the mother.

Grandmother saw two of her sons go off to war (1914-1918 along with their comrade. I salute their bravery by writing their names: Tom McIsaac; Alex McIsaac; and Jim Tooley.

They enlisted at the same time, fought the good fight and never returned, along with all the thousands of Canada's brave men. A little white cross in Flanders marks their resting place.

The loss of her two sons all but broke grandmother's heart, yet her courage and strong faith carried her through this ordeal, and helped her during all the years of her testing in the face of many fearful odds and discouraging circumstances.

She was, I believe, totally gifted in her complete acceptance of things she could not change, and receptive to the events that were meant to be.

During the terrible influenza outbreak of 1918, she and her good friend Mrs Mary Tooley (Jim's mother) nursed the villagers back to health, going to each home, never for a moment considering their own health in the precious care they rendered.

Their neighbors, the people in that little village, were all so grateful and stated their lives were spared because of the kind care they received at the hands of these two gentle folk.

In all the years of her married life she stood by grandfather's side steadfast and true, in good times as well as in tragic circumstances. For example, the great forest fire that totally destroyed their little cabin home, and save for the brave fight they fought would have claimed their lives and that of their helpless little ones.

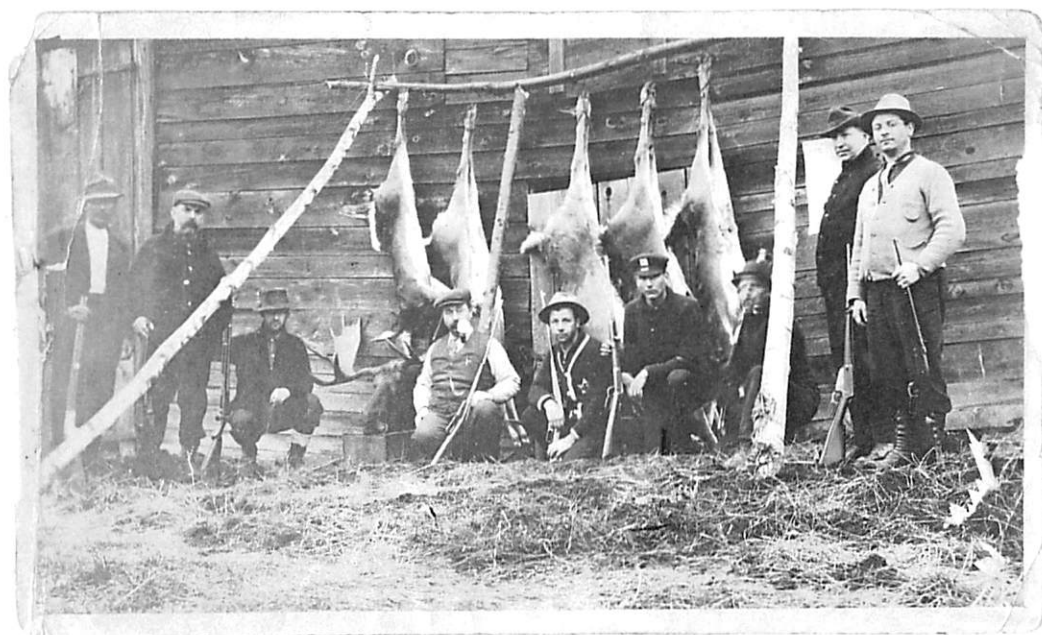

In this my story of my grandmother's life I could share much more of this brave woman's story but I must now draw my excerpt to a close.

In my salute to grandmother and the memories I hold most dear I truly know her strong faith enriched her in the precious love she gave so freely to each and every one she met on her Journey.

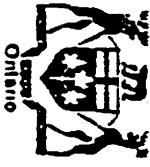

She died as she lived, quietly and peacefully, thus my memory of her will always remain a gentle part of my dreaming.

Grandmother's name is McIsaac
