Biographical Sketch or Administrative History

Aeneas Cameron (ca. 1757-1822) was born in the parish of Kirkmichael, Scotland, to Alexander Cameron and Grace Grant. Aeneas Cameron came to Montreal in spring 1788 after spending two years in Jamaica. Once in Montreal, he worked with several other fur traders, including Robert Dobie and William Grant, until he was offered a share in the North West Company in 1798. Aeneas was in charge of Temiscamingue District until he left in 1804, but did not retire to Montreal until 1806. Aeneas never formally married, but had at least one daughter, Margaret, with an Aboriginal woman at Fort Temiscamingue. Aeneas passed away in 1822 and left the bulk of his estate to his nephew Angus Cameron.

About Alexander McDonnell

Alexander McDonnell and Mary Ann McKay Alexander McDonnell is married to Mary Ann McKay (G0103), b. 1822, and is identified on his wedding record as "majuer, Metis."288 Alexander McDonnell is involved in the Timiskaming HBC, and worked as an interpreter and postmaster in the Timiskaming district before retiring to Mattawa.289 Mary Ann McKay's family is also connected to the HBC and the NWC, and is a root family. Their offspring (the grandchildren of the root ancestors) marry into several other root families including the Ferris' and the Dufonds.

Mary Ann McKay and Alexander McDonnell There is very little information on the children of John McKay and Elizabeth Mettawaben dit Nikens except that several of the children were born out of wedlock (a la facon de pays) and were baptised alongside their mother in 1836. Therefore the descendants following the marriage of their daughter Mary Ann McKay (G0103) become the McDonnells. Mary Ann McKay marries Alexander McDonnell at the Temiskaming poste in 1837. According to their marriage record Alexander McDonnell is listed as "majuer, Metis."297 Alexander is involved in the Temiskaming HBC where they are married and travels to Mattawa.
