- A daughter Sophie was baptized at Matawan in June of 1839, having been born the previous December. On this record, Cecile's name was given as "Marie McDonald," Narcisse as "Narcisse Dorion." The godmother was Marie Anne Tepinaganokwe, who has not been identified.⁶ Note that the entry above Sophie's baptismal record was the baptism of a child of Sophie's godmother, Marie Ann Tepinaganokwe. "Marie McDonald" stood as godmother to that child, indicating a tight bond between those two women.

Description: [Files 2 and 3] just show that Marie Ann Tepinaganokwe was from OKA which would be algonquin and was Sophie Dorions god mother as per the ER officers document 1 report.

- Cecile and Narcisse's third daughter, Marianne, was baptized at Matawan in 1845. On this record, they were named as "Cecile McDonell" and "Narcisse Lorion." No ethnic identifiers were given for Cecile.⁷ The godparents are listed as "Simon Nimasiba" and "Marie 8ackijikok8e," who have not been identified.

Description: As for Marianne Dorions god parent there is a lot of similarities in the names of some documents that I have found in Lamure research paper.
