Algonquin Tribunal

May 15, 2023

Re: Frederick & Walter Ferris

Kwey Algonquin Tribunal members,

I send this package on behalf of the Mattawa North Bay Algonquin First Nation members who descend from Frederick & Walter Ferris.

As discussed at the hearing on May 12, 2023, I was task to send the tribunal with documents that we had that related to Hugh Faries of Montreal. Documents attached are from 1764 to 1855. As I stated at the hearing, there is no historical document that links Frederick Ferris who married Ann Nancy Good to a Hugh Faries and a Joseph Mainville. John Holmes provided a secondary source document naming of a Frederick Faries as the son of Hugh Faries. It is possible but without a historical document, we can't be sure.

As I stated, there are historical documents prior to December 31, 1921 that list Walter Ferris and other family members as Indians and Algonquins. Walter and Frederick Ferris were both born before 1897 and therefore meet the definition of Algonquin Ancestor. No other document has been sent that list Walter Ferris, Frederick Ferris or any other siblings or descendants has belonging to any other Indian Nation.

Again thanks for allowing me to speak on behalf of the Mattawa North Bay Algonquin First Nation at the hearing and want to thank the Tribunal for all their hard work being done on behalf of the Algonquins.

Regards,

Chief Clifford Bastien Jr.
Mattawa/North Bay Algonquin First Nation
